

Matthew Henry was appointed Superintendent of Schools by the Gallatin County Commission in October 2017. Mr. Henry is a small business owner and longtime educator in Gallatin and Park counties, having served as a teacher, principal, and private school administrator. His first teaching position was at a one-room school south of Malta, Montana. Mr. Henry holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Ohio Wesleyan University and a master's degree in educational administration from Ohio State University. Matt and his wife Susan have three daughters, who they have homeschooled since 2012.

For more information about the Gallatin County Superintendent of Schools, please visit our website at www.gallatin.mt.gov under the Superintendent of Schools tab of the Departments menu. Our office is located in Room 107 of the Gallatin County Courthouse and we are open from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday.